

Man with a white recumbent horn for Walt's restoration Guy's face is blurry. Represents the blurred line between Walt's good and evil decisions

The woman gagging on this food-laden fork next to Skylar symbolises her continuing desire for Ted woman has eyes closed; walt has turned a blind eye to his violence

the cinematographer shows the edge of the wall as dividing line for the golden ratio, skylar fills the larger portion of the screen symbolizing her feminine superiority
over walt

furnace looks like a bomb symbolizing the ticking time bomb that walt is

The dark drink next to Walt foreshadows his impending death

The wall is exposed brick - representing how the characters' relationships are now being laid bare

plants represent
walt smoking
weed in the first season

The stripes
represent can in the time made from in the show

Green napkin between Skylar and Walt Money = green
Money is standing between them

Represents how much I want to suc...

Pink paper
Represents
pink feelings that Vince has

chain behind skylar is red, symbolizing rage she feels because of her ruined family

The blue napkin represents the meth business, while the sauce bottle represents Walt's family.
His gaze is set on the napkin because it is all he cares about deep inside.